CASE FILE.

With your stoicness, you seem like an obvious mastermind. How did you keep it a secret?

...

The best-kept secrets are those hidden in plain sight. Indeed, the most suspicious criminals you meet are those that refuse to answer during questioning.

So, a common interrogation technique is to make things...

...transactional.

To that end...

What is it about being stoic that makes me appear so obvious?

Is it because your perceptions are founded in your choice of programming, wherein the culprit is always brooding and disconnected?

What a comforting,
unilateral outlook the innocent bear.

CASE FILE.

What are your personal thoughts on the view that detectives are good people?

Did you know that all criminals and detectives have something in common?

...The pain of a victim
nurtures their profession.

Make of that what you will.

CASE FILE.

- So how's your dad
- ...Jin?
- How did you betray your father, and why?

...When he was faced with the reality that his only daughter had joined the ranks of the very people he condemned...

He had a choice to make.

He chose incorrectly.

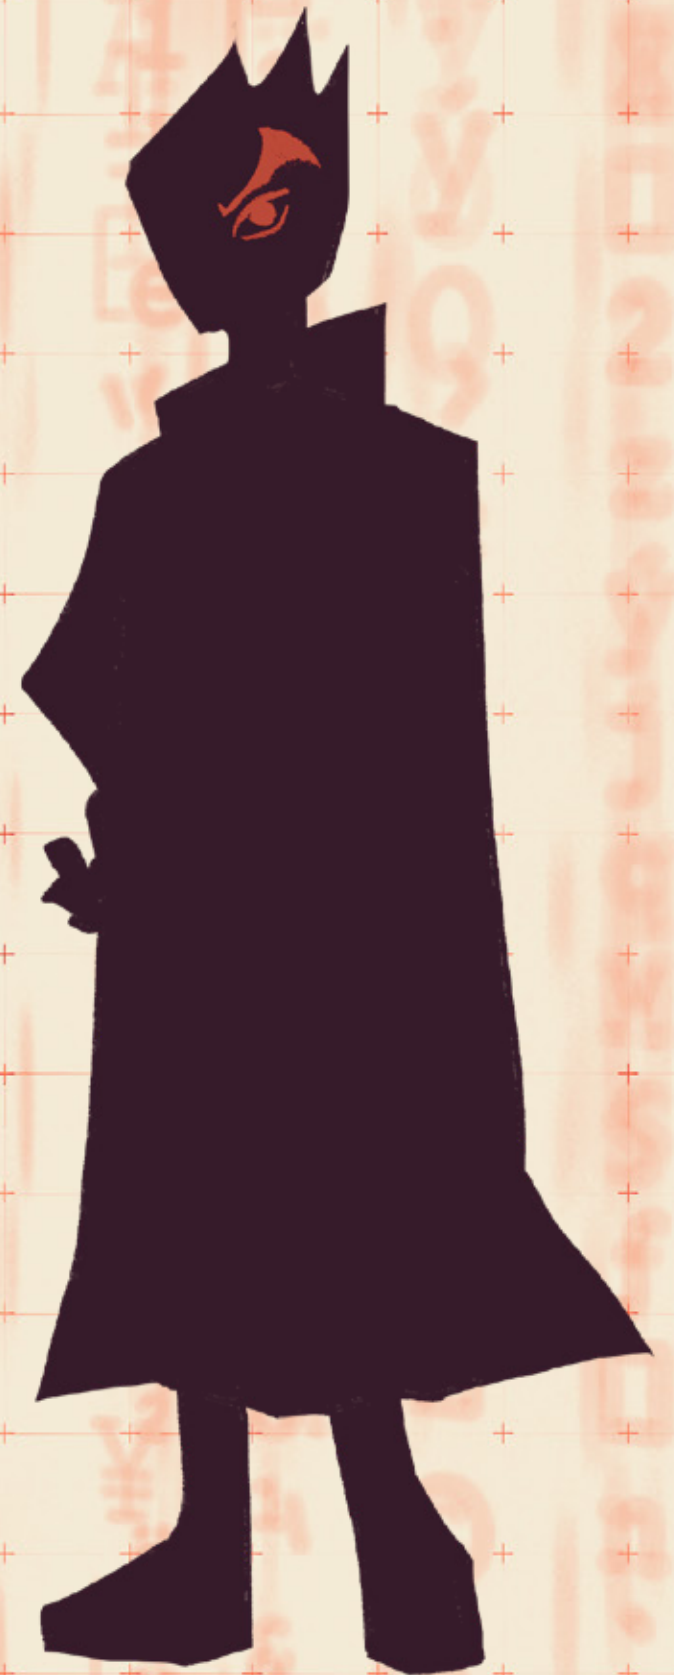

And he left his child to pick up the pieces, yet again.

Q: IS THAT YOUR REAL EYEBROW

yes, of course. Why do you ask?

Q: What is the worst bad
word someone could say?

An excellent
question...

most likely the F-Word but... p*opyhead is pretty bad too...

Q: How do you get the eyebrows so like... yknow... how are they so big... and pointed upward

Q: How are your eyebrows so incredible?

Hm, I see you are all very impressed by my marvelous eyebrows! The trick is lots of hard work, discipline, and constant scowling! Just believe in yourself and soon you will have eyebrows as stupendous as mine!

Q: Is there a penalty for swearing? If yes, what is it?

There is absolutely 0 tolerance for the use of inappropriate language and any student caught doing so will be swiftly punished via detention for 1 or more hour(s)! And also a writing assignment to make a 5 paragraph minimum apology essay!

Q: Do you feel any sort of bond with your classmates?

In order to achieve my goal, I had to cut off any and all emotional attachments. This included some... hard decisions, but... I will do anything to reach my ambitions.

Q: Tell us about your design! Is it mass market or custom made?

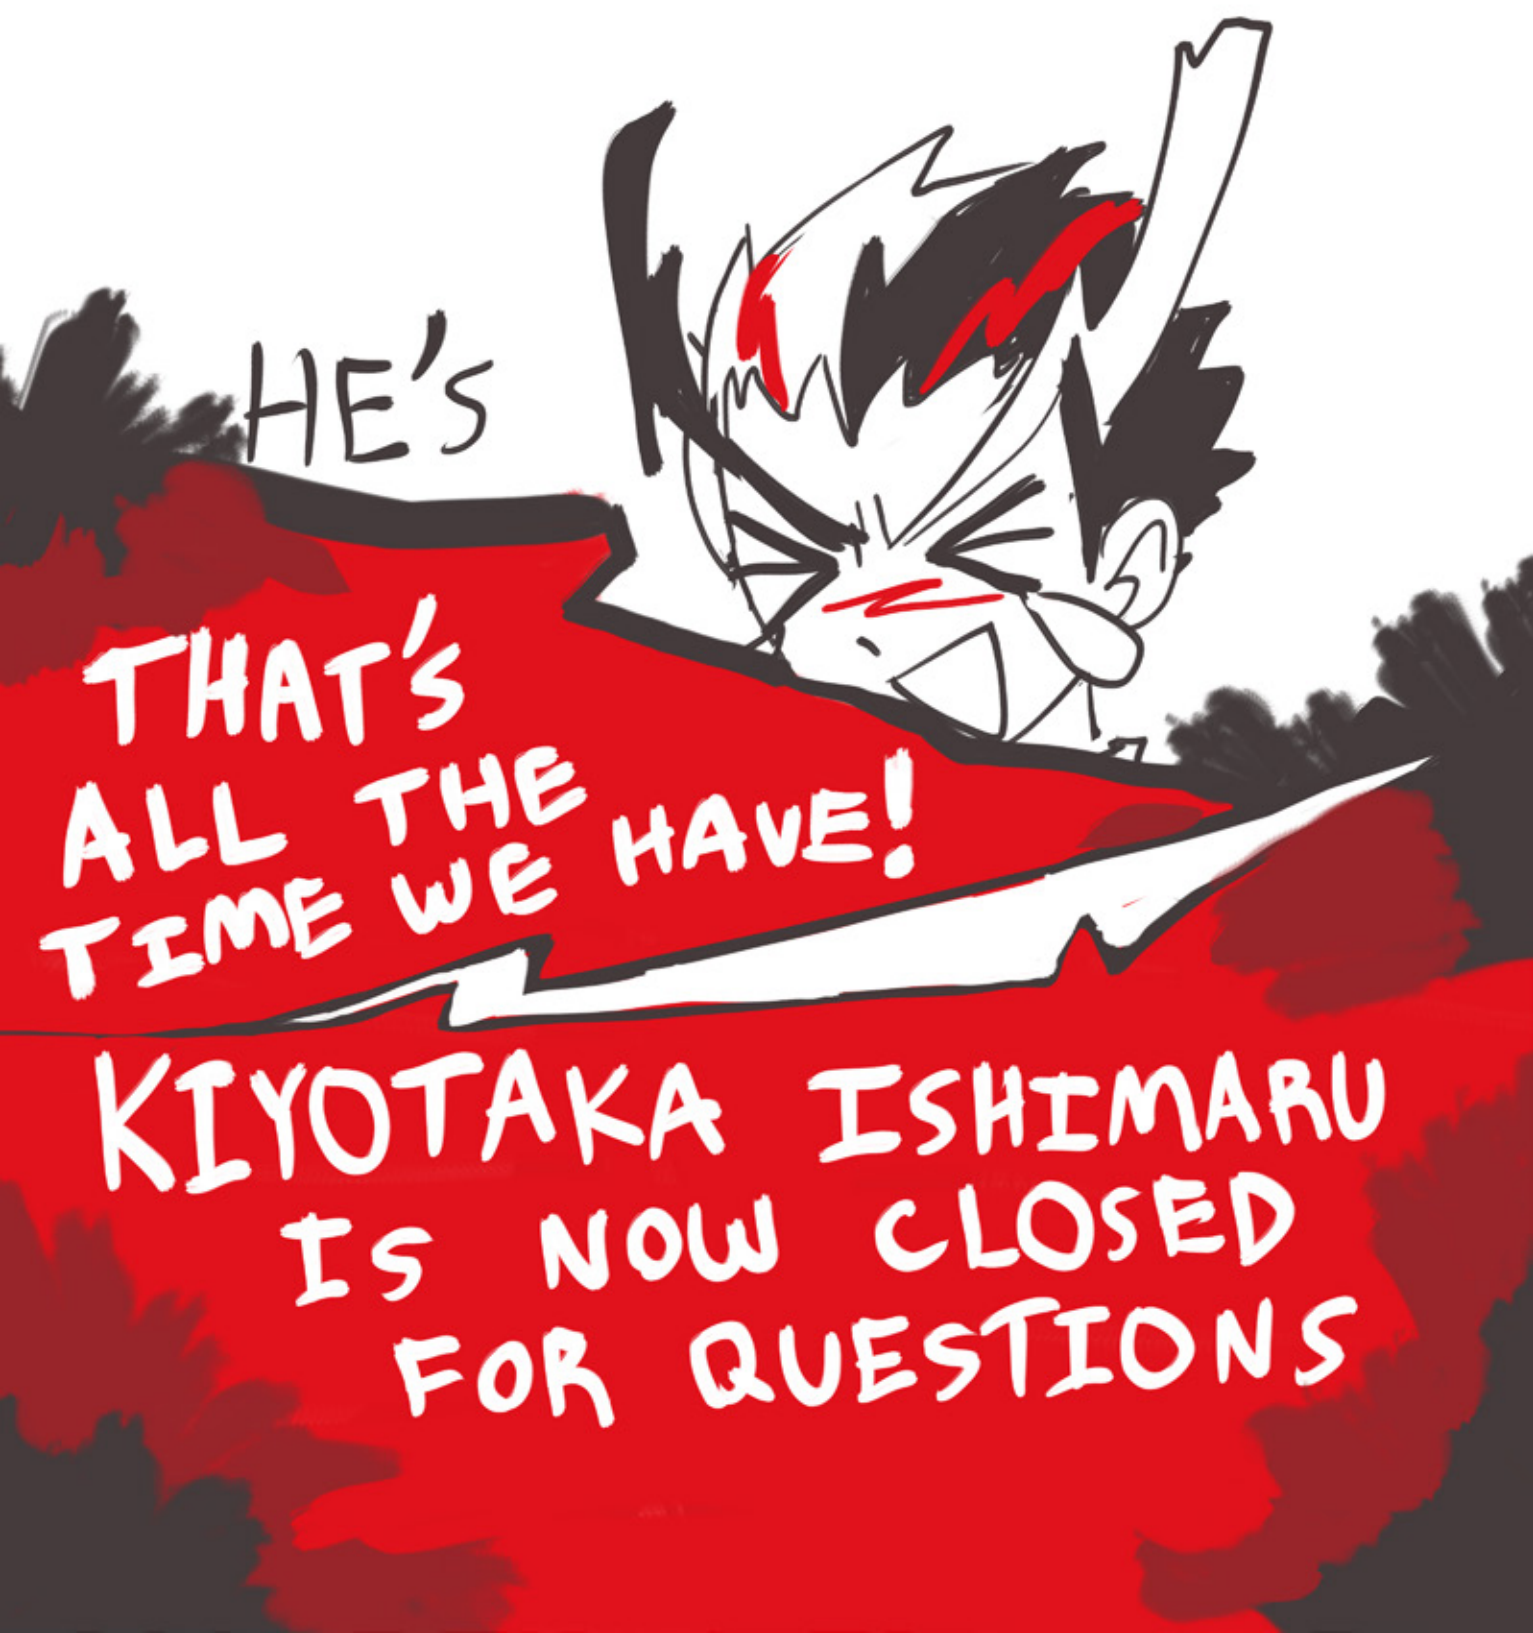

Of course my uniform is custom-made! I asked specifically for the cape, which I am particularly proud of! (Whoever said it was just 4 out of 5 stars on my stats is getting detention.)

Q: What is your favorite joke?

Did you hear about the fellow who cut off the left side of his body?

Idc if you re the mastermind you re still baby

How did you use your programming skills to aid you in being the mastermind?

THINGS HAVE CHANGED. MOSTLY BECAUSE I HAD TO OVERTAKE THE SCHOOL. IT WAS A BIT HARD TO HACK THE SYSTEM, BUT MY PROGRAMMING HELPS ME KEEP TRACK OF EVERYONE AND RUN TESTS. TECHNOLOGY CONTROLS EVERYTHING THESE DAYS, AS YOU MAY KNOW.

... SO MY FIRST PICK WAS TO REPLACE THE MONOKUMAS.

Can you reprogram monokuma to do a funky little dance >:)

YEA! THEYRE A BIT TOO STUPID AND CLOWNISH FOR AN AI, BUT I FEEL BAD THROWING THEM OUT.

YET I HAD TO DO SOMETHING SO IT WAS DECIDED TO CREATE ALTER EGO 2 AFTER MY DADS WORK

What do you think about your dad?
I MISS HIM DEARLY TO THIS VERY DAY.
DAD ALTER ASKS IF IM WINNING THOUGH

EVER SINCE I HAVE TO MONITOR THE WHOLE SCHOOL

ALTER EGO IS A SYSTEM NOW.

EACH ALTER HAS ITS JOB,

HOWEVER,

ALTER EGO (!)

(the og one) is still the core, controlling the others.

ALTER EGO IS FINE, BUT CAN BE BUSHY A BIT

ITS ALSO CONNECTED TO MY BRAIN, SPOOKS

What is Alter Ego Like?

Does Alter Ego stay the same in this universe

Why are you doing this?
What writing are you working on?

Huh? Oh... u-um,
I'm only working on the greatest romance novel
of all time!

And naturally,
any novel worth
its salt needs
a muse

That's why I started all this:
what's more tragic,
more romantic,
more inspirational than a pair of star-crossed lovers pushed together and ripped apart by a death game?

What's your favorite romantic trope? It's strange though...

My favorite one has to be when stone-cold CEO prettyboy finally opens up to the shy, morose protagonist who has a secret dark side...

and cherry blossoms fall from the sky as he confesses his love...

Byakuya keeps avoiding me, even when the Monokumas throw flower petals at him.

There must not be enough cherry blossoms.

Thoughts on Byakuya?

Achooo

Ahh~, my dearest little plaything Byakuya!

Well, as the leading lady of my novel, it's only natural that I end up with the rich, handsome,
iron-fisted businessman...

even if i have to cut up his his pretty face to convince him

Does Syo play part in this?

I do all the dirty work for little missy

Such a scaredy cat,
can't do anything
without me

Q. Why did you start a killing game?

Some things deserve to be burned down, in flames.

Q. I can't imagine someone as nice as you being the mastermind.

We all have things that change us.

Q. What happened to Kenshiro?

How could he have died so easily?
Without blood, and without laughter, but with the careless weight of a word?

Q. How do you feel about betraying your friend Aoi Asahina?

I wonder sometimes what could have become of us,
if things had been different...

But it's too late for those kinds of thoughts now.

Question

Are you good at Monopoly? Do you ever play against Celeste and do you ever win?

we never finish the game normally -

Question

Why are you teaming up with Celeste? Who proposed it?

As loathsome as she is, she proves to be a...rather valuable resource. Whenever the killing game is at risk of spiraling out of control, she expertly misdirects and manipulates the most vocal of the contenders and alters the tides in our favor.

I supposed that I could learn a thing or two about business from her deceit, so I offered her a decent sum of pocket money - around $10 mil - as an incentive when proposing a partnership. That money-hungry witch didn't even think twice before switching sides mid-game and joining me.

Question :

what is your relationship with byakuya-like? is it a king - queen situation?

don't make me laugh,
that arrogant fool
might have the looks and inheritance but he's nothing more than a figurehead for my plans.

Question :

what's the most luxurious way you can imagine spending your day?

the perfect day would be spent in my grand victorian palace, sipping a bloody mary prepared by my vampire servants as I watch the finest entertainment available - peasants fighting for their lives.

Question :

are you happy about being partnered with Byakuya?

I suppose he's a helpful asset to have - his legal team has proved to be rather useful when fending off lawsuits. Once the game ends, we are to split the profits from the game equally and part ways.

... Here is a little secret, though: a mastermind doesn't settle for anything less than the jackpot - and a true mastermind certainly doesn't spare anyone.

Question:
hand in marriage?

don't make me laugh.
matrimony is only reserved for those who meet my standards,
and I can tell you right
now that my standards
don't even graze the top of your head.

"Do you trust your partner?"

"We became business partners out of necessity, not affection. His money and influence provides to be...rather useful, and he needs my cunning wit and clever tactics to stay on top. Killing games are currently the most profitable in the entertainment industry: Byakuya uses his connections to sway the audience into placing bets on who lives or dies, and I sow fear and distrust in the game itself to tip the scales and...nudge the results in our favor."

Byakuya: "It's cheating. She cheats."
